

Admin Users

When creating an account you will need to follow the guide below:

- You will supply a username of your liking, we recommend having some sort of combination with “admin” so that it's easy to remember and follow.
- You will need to provide an accurate email address for the account as well as a password.
- Last thing you need to do is select a role, since this is for red users you would select “Admin”.

The following is of access to Admin Users once they are signed in to CySim:

- You will have access to a variety of pages
 - Home
 - This page is where you can see basic information about CySim and is where you will load in once signed in.
 - Scoreboard
 - This page is where you can go to see the current statistics of games being played, things such as the leaderboard for the current scenarios being run is shown here.
